

Plymouth Coastal Observatory Annual Partners' Meeting

Q&A Zoominar

Wednesday 03 November 2021 at 10:00 GMT

Agenda

10:00	Introduction to Meeting	Josie Kirby Plymouth Coastal Observatory
10:05	Welcome	John Cocker South West Coastal Group Chair and SWRCMP Chair
10:10	Plymouth Coastal Observatory Update	Joseff Saunders PCO Team Leader and Ruth Adams SWRCMP Programme Manager
	Q and A Session
10:25	CoastSnap: A Global Citizen Science Project to Monitor Changing Coastlines	Dr. Mitchell Harley Water Research Lab, University of New South Wales
10:35	Understanding the Business of the Beach Through Smart Cameras	Dr. Chris Drummond Water Research Lab, University of New South Wales
10:45	PACCo: Promoting Adaptation to Changing Coasts	Mike Williams Environment Agency
10:55	Looe England's Most Flooded Town: Utilising Coastal Monitoring Data to Help Address Challenging Problems	Dr. Oliver Way WSP on behalf of Cornwall Council
11:05	Towards an Automated 3D Approach to Quantify Cliff Retreat	Cristina Corti University of Exeter
11:15	WCMC Schools' Programme	Gwyn Nelson Wales Coastal Monitoring Centre
11:25	The Extreme 2013/14 Winter Storms: Regional Patterns in Multi-Annual Beach Recovery	Kat Konstantinou University of Plymouth
11:35	Cliff Sensitivity to Accelerating Sea Level Rise: Blue Anchor to Watchet	Dr. Mike Walkden WSP on behalf of Somerset West and Taunton District Council
11:45	Bude Adaptive Pathways Pilot	Dr. Kris Inch Environment Agency
11:55 – 12:00	Close	Josie Kirby Plymouth Coastal Observatory

Celebrating 15 years of Coastal Monitoring in the South West!