

South West Coastal Monitoring

Annual Meeting

Wednesday 08 November 2023 at 10:00
 Rolle, University of Plymouth

A Decade On

How our coast has evolved since the 2013-2014 winter storms

10:00	Arrival and Refreshments
10:30	Welcome	John Cocker South West Coastal Group Chair and SWCM Lead
10:40	South West Coastal Monitoring Update and Programme Developments	Emerald Siggery SWCM Team Leader
10:55	Asset Database – Overview and Achievements	Miriam Cattermole SWCM
11:10	A New Approach to the Quality Control of Breaking Waves. Re-processing Datawell Directional Waverider MkIII heave data affected by breaking Waves	Thomas Dhoop Channel Coastal Observatory
11:25	Making us more resilient: addressing coastal change within local planning policy in Cornwall	Rhys Hobbs Cornwall Council
11:40	Coffee
12:00	Similarities and differences of the coastal response and recovery from the 2013/14 storms along the SW coast of England and France	Olivier Burvingt University of Bordeaux
12:15	Statistical Analysis of Southwest UK Coastal Storms	Nikolas Martzikos University of Plymouth
12:30	Coastal impacts of the 2013/14 winter in the SW of England placed in a decadal temporal framework	Gerd Masselink University of Plymouth
12:45	Crantock – Safety since the storms	Kit Stokes University of Plymouth
13:00	Lunch
14:00	National Trust 'Shifting Shores', then and now	Tony Flux National Trust
14:15	2013/14 Storm Timeline – Cause and Effect	Martin Davies Environment Agency
14:30	Coastal Dune Dynamics Across Cornwall	Liane Brodie University of Plymouth
14:45	Storms at Chesil Beach - what have we learnt?	Dave Picksley Environment Agency
15:00	A decade on – how 2013/14 is still shaping coastal resilience planning in Mount's Bay	Justin Ridgewell Environment Agency
15:15	Close	